Alma Mater is your name . . .

Foreword:

An element of school spirit is basic to all our endeavors at John Graham High School. In the 1968 Warrentonian we present a retrospective view of the manifestation of this spirit in the personalities and events which have made the past year one which will live in our memories.

This year at John Graham will be the last for the Class of 1968. We look back on the past years with the realization that the John Graham Spirit has become more than an influential factor in our success. It has become an integral part of our very being. No doubt this Spirit will serve as an impetus and guide in the coming years. The initiative, the ambition, the desire to succeed - all parts of the John Graham Spirit - shall be all-important in the realization of our higher goals.

Realizing that the John Graham Spirit is a part of our very personal fiber, we commit the 1968 Warrentonian to the praise of John Graham High School - our Alma Mater.

your glories . .

To One Who Is Dedicated . . .

It is seldom indeed that a teacher is also a friend of the students she teaches. Dedication to the teaching profession is expected of all teachers, but a dedication to the students is a truly rare quality.

We have chosen for our dedication a faculty member who is indeed a friend of the students here at John Graham. Both in and out of school, she has shown a vigorous and untiring interest in her students' wellbeing.

No one realizes the dedication of this teacher more than the 1968 Warrentonian Staff does. Her assistance and criticism have been invaluable in bringing you this edition of the Warrentonian. She has proved herself not only an invaluable guide to the Staff, but a friend to the individual members of the Staff and the student body as well.

In appreciative recognition of your service and dedication to our Alma Mater, we proudly dedicate the 1968 Warrentonian to you,

Mrs. Mary Shields

. . And we'll stand by you . . .

Administration

The administration is the essence of our daily activities at John Graham. Their contributions transcend the ordinary duties of the teaching profession. They sponsor clubs and organizations, chaperone dances and convention trips, act as personal guides, and are always willing to lend an attentive ear to their students' problems.

These men and women are the ones to whom we look for inspiration. They are constantly correcting, criticizing, listening, helping--continuously sharing their knowledge with us.

It is difficult to attempt to express the appreciation which is most definitely due the members of our faculty. The appreciation we feel is deeply implanted in us, and will not easily lend itself to an honorable interpretation here and now. Perhaps it is even true that we do not fully realize the debt we owe to our faculty and administration--yet.

Those Responsible . . .

The county officials, although remaining behind the scenes a great deal of the time, are vital to the success of the local school system. They have shown an undying interest in the welfare of the students of John Graham High School and Warren County. For these people, we as students are deeply grateful.

Warren County School Board
Mrs. W. S. Peoples, Mr. P. B. Boyd, Mrs. Scott Gardner, Mr. Jim Kerr

Mrs. Robert M. Davis

Mr. J. R. Peeler, Superintendent of Warren County Schools
Mr. Coy Lewis, Assistant Superintendent

Mr. Bartholomew enjoys an athletic event with his wife Dee and his daughters, Betsy and Nancy.

A Man With a Purpose

Fred L. Bartholomew, Principal

Mr. Stephens consults Mr. Bartholomew.

The principalship is not an easy job. But Mr. Bartholomew has executed his duties with wisdom and conviction. He has repeatedly taken a stand on behalf of the students and has advised them in matters of varying degrees of importance. His guidance and advice have made him a man of considerable stature to both his students and his faculty. Mr. Bartholomew has, indeed, shown himself to be a man with a purpose.

Mrs. Anne Webb, School Secretary

The school's office is the hub of school life. At any time during the day, one may observe the activities necessary to the planning of an ordinary school day.

Classes

John Graham High School has 300 students, and each one is basically a typical teenager. Teenagers will have their problems, crises, ups, and downs; but they, more than any other generation, have their fun.

But they are aware of their responsibilities, too. They strive to elect only the most capable officers, and their representatives are to be accomplished young men and women. The students of a high school like to think for themselves, yet they respect those who train their minds. Some have decided on their future vocation and are now preparing for it. One of the most valuable things a pupil learns is his right to individuality, so students consistently endeavor to be original.

These are the classes of John Graham High School.

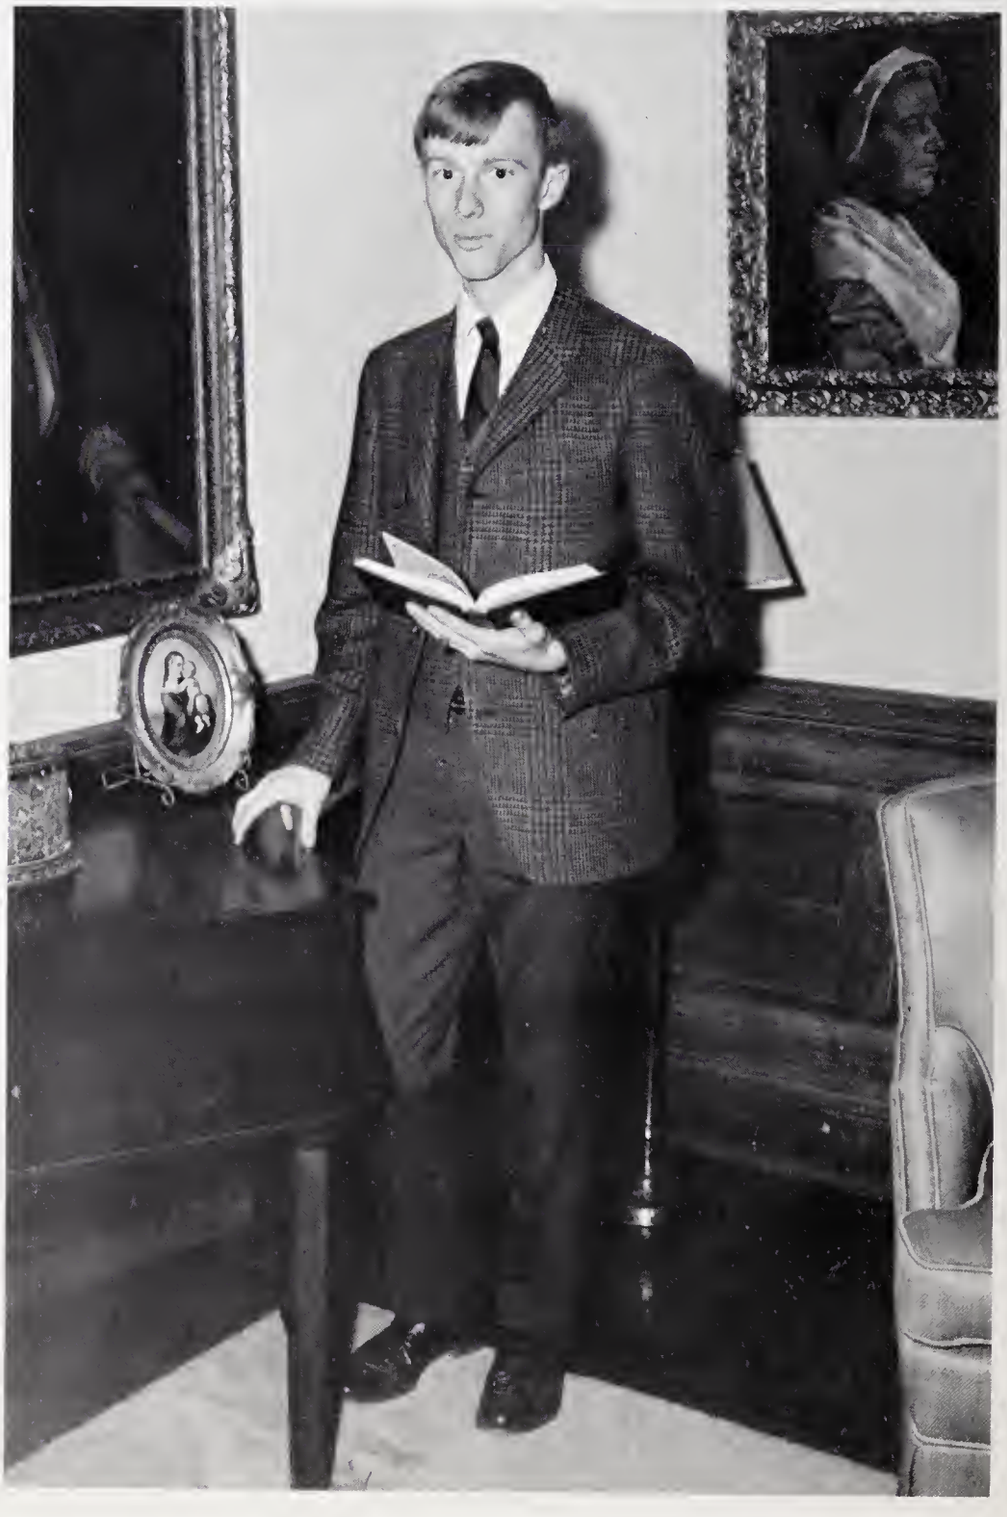
Outstanding Seniors

The Outstanding Seniors of John Graham High School are chosen by the faculty on the basis of their initiative and perserverence.

Outstanding Seniors

Paul Whitley. . .As president of the senior class, Paul has shown great leadership abilities. He has also proven himself intellectually outstanding in that he was chosen as a representative to Governor's School, as Chief Marshall, and is a National Merit semi-finalist.

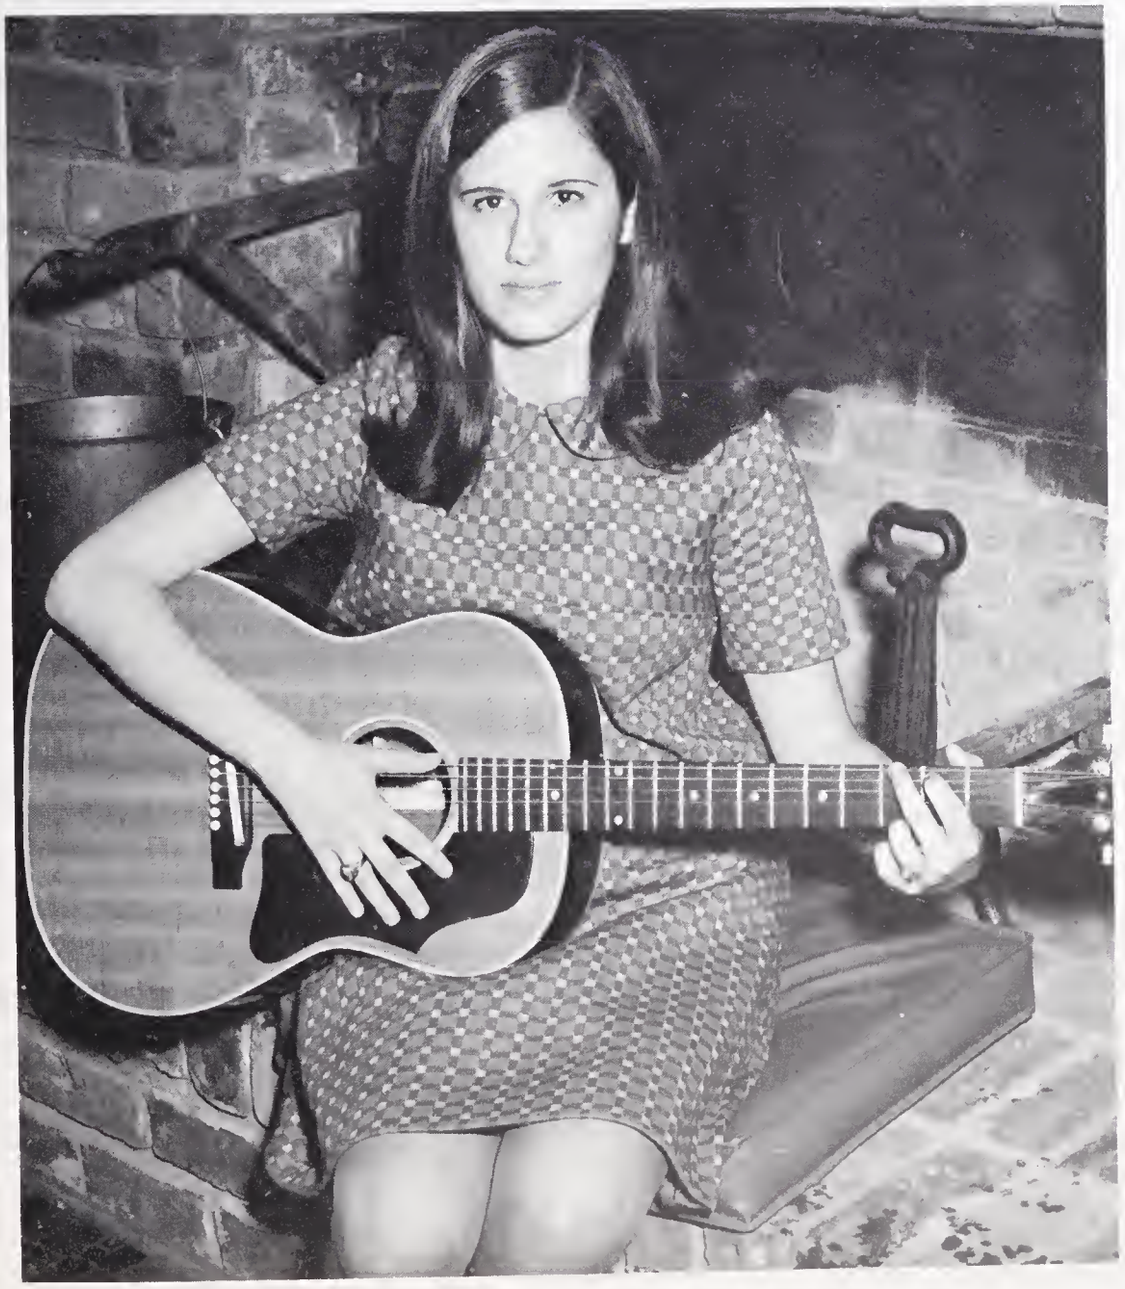


Valerie Miles. . .Valerie Miles has taken many steps to make the Warrentonian a yearbook to remember. Without her perserverance it would not have been a success. She has been a true leader in many activities of our school and is worthy of the title "outstanding."

Outstanding Seniors

Debbie Roberts. . .Debbie has cheered us on to victory on many occasions. Her respect for our school and her position in it is a quality few can claim. She is the backbone of many of the organizations at John Graham. Her desire and determination have given her the ability to succeed.

Laura Turner. . ."Intellectual quietness" can best describe Laura. Yet, we cannot exclude the terms "poised," "talented," and "original." These abilities qualify her as a willing and able worker. With all these characteristics Laura has truly been an outstanding senior.



Outstanding Seniors

Ellen Mustian. . .Her ability to accomplish a task has put Ellen high on the list of outstanding seniors. Her quiet, studious manner has carried her far in her academic endeavors.

Helen Diamond. . .As an active participant in athletics and in the numerous clubs of John Graham, Helen has paid tribute to her school. We in turn pay tribute to her by proclaiming her a truly outstanding senior.

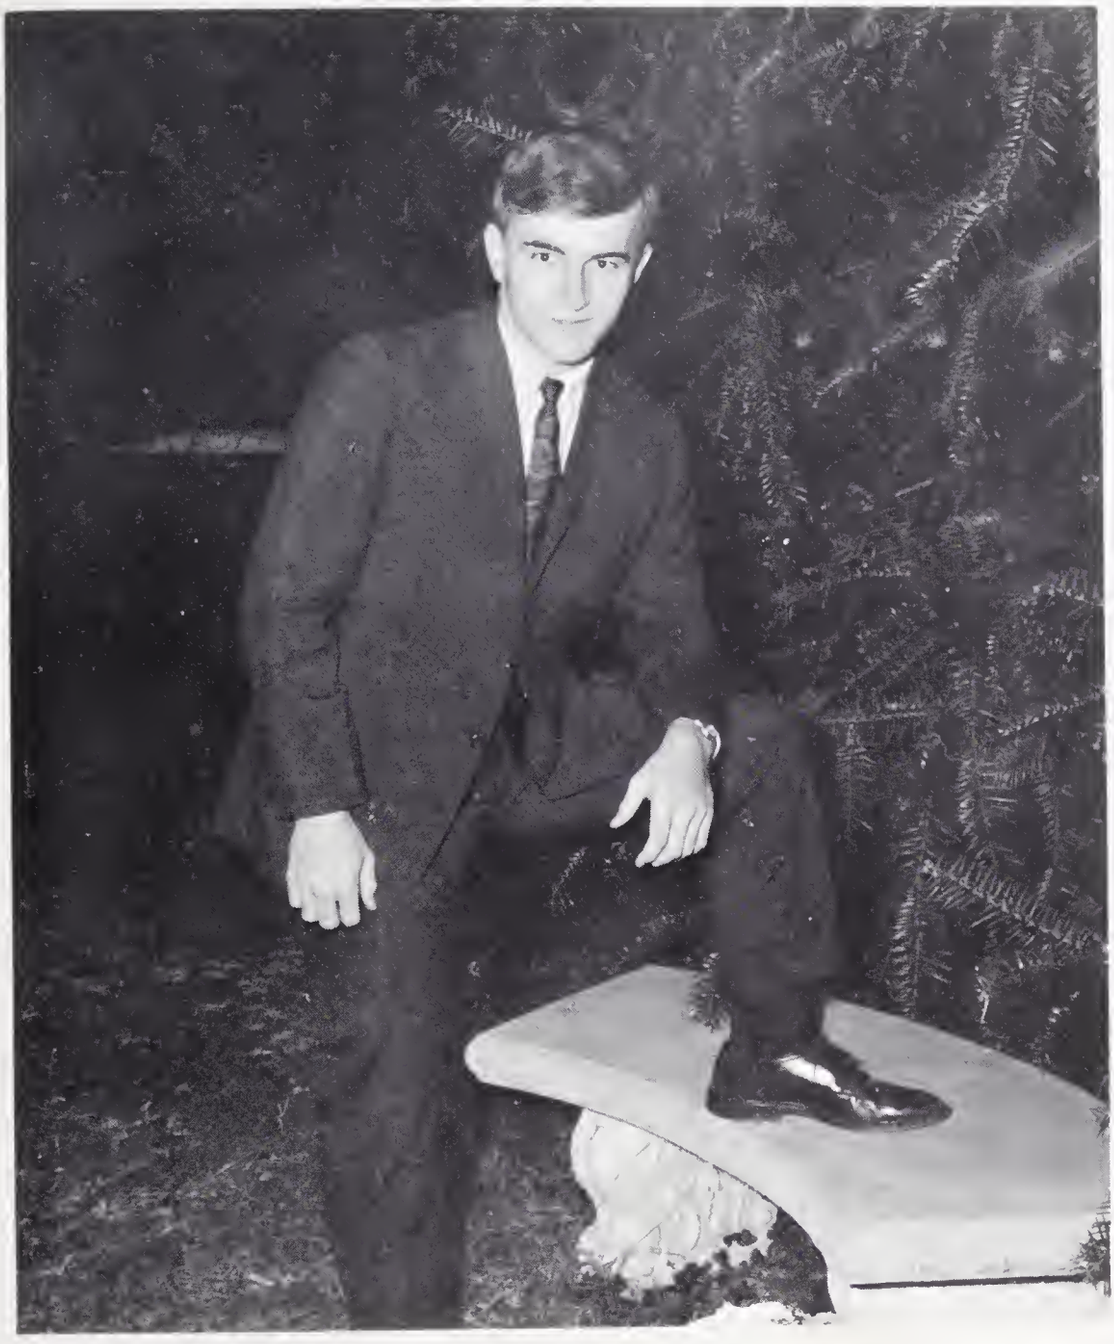
Outstanding Seniors

Ashley Davis. . .School life cannot be limited to the campus alone. Ashley is one of John Graham's most well-rounded students. He participates in athletics, organizations, classroom discussions, and a list of other outstanding activities too numerous to mention. How can a student who possesses all these qualities not be a superior member and a credit to his school?

Ann Duncan. . .One cannot limit the talents of such a vivacious and attractive girl as Ann. She has brought her school much recognition in her oratory and intellectual abilities. She is active in many of our organizations here at John Graham and has made numerous contributions toward the advancement of her class and the entire student body.

Outstanding Seniors

Jimmy Rivers. . . Certainly the President of the Student Council is a prominent figure around the school. As a participant in our three major sports, Jimmy can certainly be credited with the ability to demonstrate all the commendable characteristics that a true athletic must possess to succeed.



Marty Allen. . .As an outstanding sportsman and a diligent worker, Marty has added much to the credit of his school. His ability to co-operate with the team, not only in sports, but in all aspects of his school life, has won him the distinction of a conscientious and capable participant.

Organizations

Through organizations, we, the students of John Graham High School, learn by experience how to work together as one, to co-operate with each other, to accept the opinions of others, and to get along with our fellow men.

Student Council

The Student Council is representative of the student body in its entirety. On its shoulders rests the responsibility of encouraging co-operation between the students and the faculty towards the betterment of our school.

Athletics

Athletics takes on a broader aspect than merely winning games or cheering the team. It has a deeper and more significant importance to the spirit and life of a school. Qualities of sportsmanship, determination, loyalty, and initiative evolve from athletics that are building factors of strong character and sound conviction. Individuals with these qualities become stars not only among their friends, but also stars in society, in America, and in the world. They are the stars to which posterity can look for guidance.

Included in the many branches of the athletic department are football, basketball, baseball, and golf. Boosting these teams into the winner's circle are the cheerleaders. John Graham High School is proud of its fine sports department, proud of its victories and proud of the star athletes it produces.

In Memoriam

Malvin Gordon Haithcock, Jr.

1944 - 1964

Gordon Haithcock was loved and respected by all who knew him. He gained recognition as a superior athlete and sportsman. But Gordon was indeed much more than an athlete. He was a true gentleman, a fine friend, and he earned the highest respect of his friends and community. Gordon Haithcock was the ideal of youth, the young man every boy strives to become.

He represented John Graham High School well, not only on the athletic field but in everyday life as well. And it is only fitting that Gordon's Alma Mater should pay tribute to him as he so honored it. In our own small but sincere way, we wish to honor the memory of Malvin Gordon Haithcock, Jr. by dedicating the Athletics Section of the 1968 Warrentonian to a fine friend, a loyal alumnus of John Graham High School, and to the young man who was the very ideal of all that is fine and good in youth.

Head Coach, Jimmy Webb

Wayne Plaster

Bobby Blaylock

The coaching staff has not only played an important part in the development of an outstanding record, but the qualities of sportsmanship which was instilled into each boy has built characters of formidable strength and undying conviction.

Coaches

The Backfield contributed 100% of their efforts in achieving a winning season.

Captains Lane Myrick, Jimmy Rivers, Marty Allen and Wayne Lyles led their teammates over the obstacles which faced the team during the season. Their leadership and spirit served as a guiding light to victory.

Football

Clifton Wilson makes a successful tackle against arch-rival Norlina.

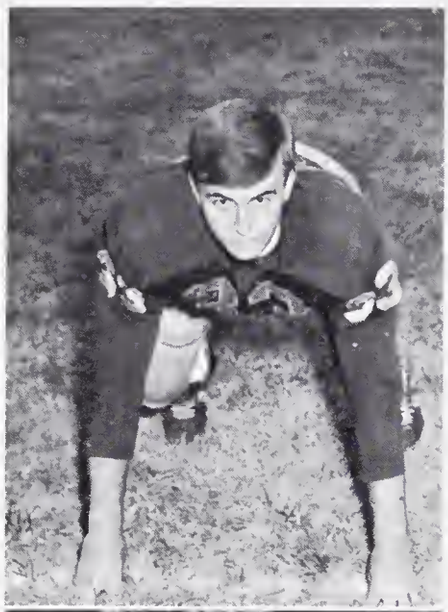
John Graham adds the finishing touch for a 20-13 victory over Weldon.

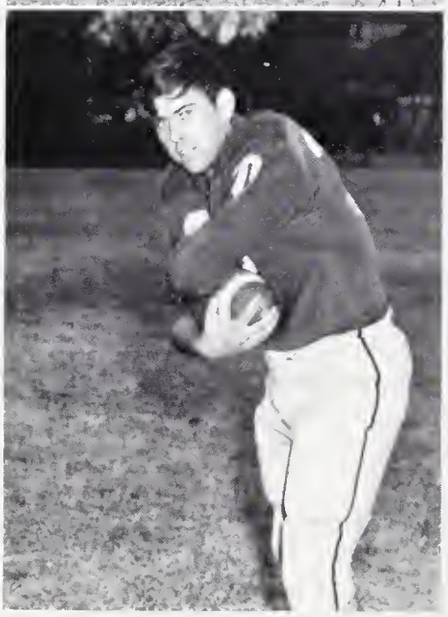
Although the glory of football is not often bestowed upon the Line, the struggle to achieve victory is shared equally by them.

Wayne Lyles gains yardage against Murfreesboro through the hole opened up by the line.

Clifton Wilson's second effort was needed in the game against the Blue Waves.

Marty Allen, Guard
Wayne Lyles, Fullback





Lane Myrick, End

Leon Edmonds, Fullback
Larry Short, Fullback

Hustle and bruising tackles helped the Jackets come out on top in the close game with Enfield.

Manager Paul Whitley and his assistant Frank Hunter

Although they do not excel on the playing field, their efforts off the field are something to be appreciated. Without their vigilance and appropriate humor, the team would be at a great loss.

The Yellow Jacket's rush is always effeetive.

All-Conference

Marty Allen, Lane Myrick, Jimmy Rivers, Buck Young, Wayne Lyles. A combination of spirit and ability won these boys the distinction of All-Conference.

If the Murfreesboro game the going got tough, but we managed to pick up extra yardage on this play.

Homecoming 1967

Benny Hilliard breaks away for a substantial gain while Lane Myrick prepares to throw a block.

As the game begins, the excitement rises–from the breaking of the traditional hoop, to the crowning of the Queen, to the tension of the game itself. All this went into making an enjoyable Homecoming for the players, cheerleaders, and spectators alike. Being the last home game of the season for the Seniors, this was a memorable experience although the Yellow Jackets were defeated by Murfreesboro 20-7.

The Homecoming Queen at John Graham is elected by the Football Team for her beauty and personality. This year's Queen, Miss Nancy Ayscue, possesses both of these qualities plus many more befitting the title she holds. Surely this will be an honor that she will cherish always.

The game was grueling and the defeat was taken to heart, but the Yellow Jackets lost only in score--not in desire . . .

Cheerleaders

Debbie Roberts, Chief; Barbara Benson, Linda Fleming, Janet Gardner, Nettie Lou Elam, Elizabeth Williams, Helen Diamond

Cheerleading is a combination of talents. To be good, it requires a strong desire, steady practice, and discipline. A cheerleader's main purpose is to promote and uphold school spirit, to develop a sense of good sportsmanship among the students, and to better relationships between schools during athletic events. We feel that the cheerleader squad at John Graham has well fulfilled its purpose.

Debbie Roberts, Chief

Tradition requires that the cheerleaders lead the spectators in singing the School Song at half time.

SCHOOL SONG

Oh, John Graham High is just the school for me,
With all its students and its faculty.
To keep her on top always is our aim
And come back some day when we know we'll win again.
It is the best school in this world we know,
And maybe that is why we love her so.
And so we'll stand beside her day by day, day by day,
Our Dear Ole John Graham High, Rah, Rah!
Hey, we'll fight! we'll fight!
With all our strength and might!
Hey, we'll win! we can!
And so we give a hand!
Hey, Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah!
J.G.H.S. Rah!

Lady Jackets

Charlotte Wood, Phyllis Loyd, Margaret Robertson, Melba Thompson, Jane Connell, Jennifer Taylor, Jean Drake, Betty Lou Carroll, Ann Rooker, Valerie Fleming, Scoggin Jones, Alice Marie Mustian, Lisa Coleman, Verliene Thompson, and Coach Plaster.

Facing the 1967-68 season with uncertainty, Coach Wayne Plaster transformed an inexperienced group of girls into a well-drilled team representative of the John Graham Spirit. Throughout the season, the Lady Jackets strove to attain victory for their Alma Mater. Functioning smoothly under the capable direction of their coach, the Lady Jackets brought pride and distinction to themselves, their coach, and their school.

MANAGER BRENDA SHEARIN

Brenda has proved herself indispensible to the Lady Jackets in many ways. Her vital services and her enthusiastic support are integral parts of the team.

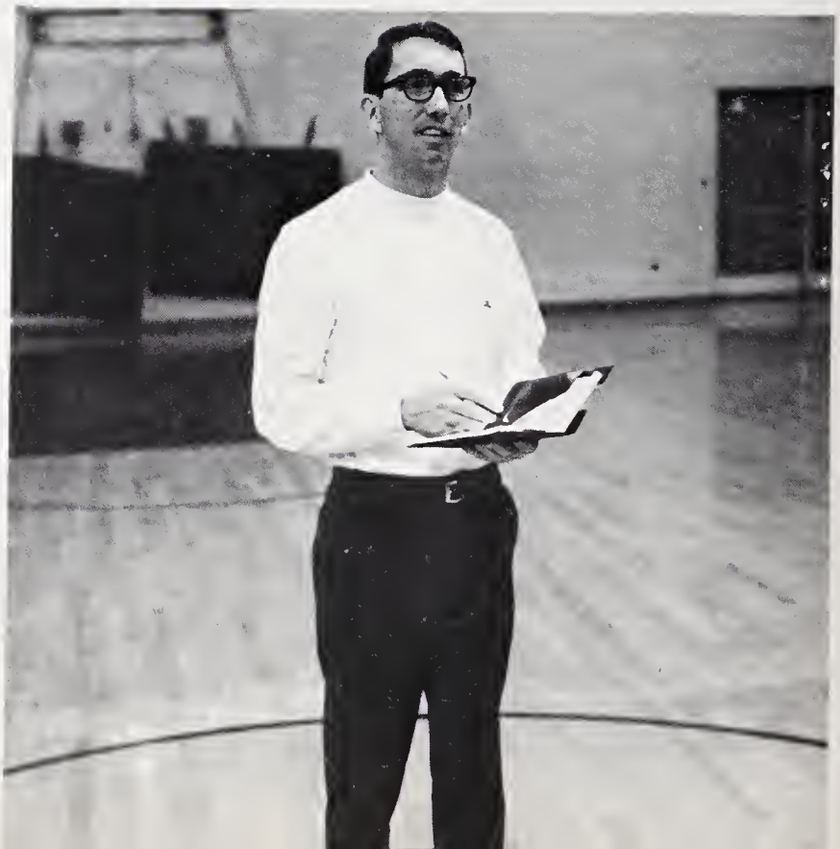
Coach Jon Burwell

Coach Jon Burwell, mentor of the Yellow Jackets, possesses all the qualities of a truly efficient coach. In his position, he is capable in every sense of the word. But in addition, Coach Burwell possesses the driving enthusiasm so typical of the John Graham Spirit. Stirring the loyalty of his athletes and of the student body, he has directed his teams to victory for John Graham High School.



Boys' Basketball

Coach Burwell and Co-captains Jerry Ellington and Jimmy Rivers.

The Yellow Jackets took advantage of the Blue Waves as the two teams met for the second time of the season.

Boys' Basketball

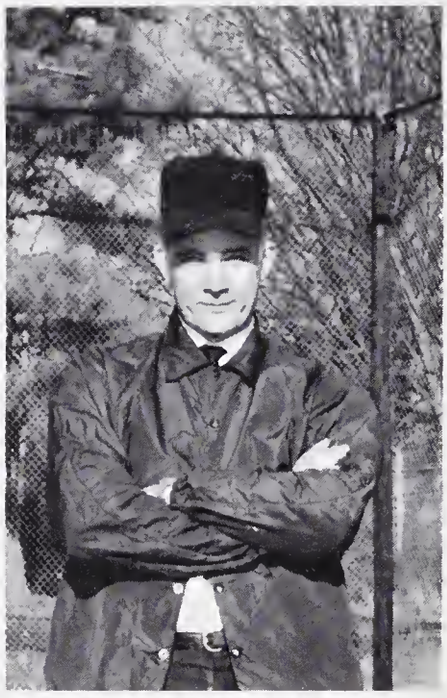
Baseball

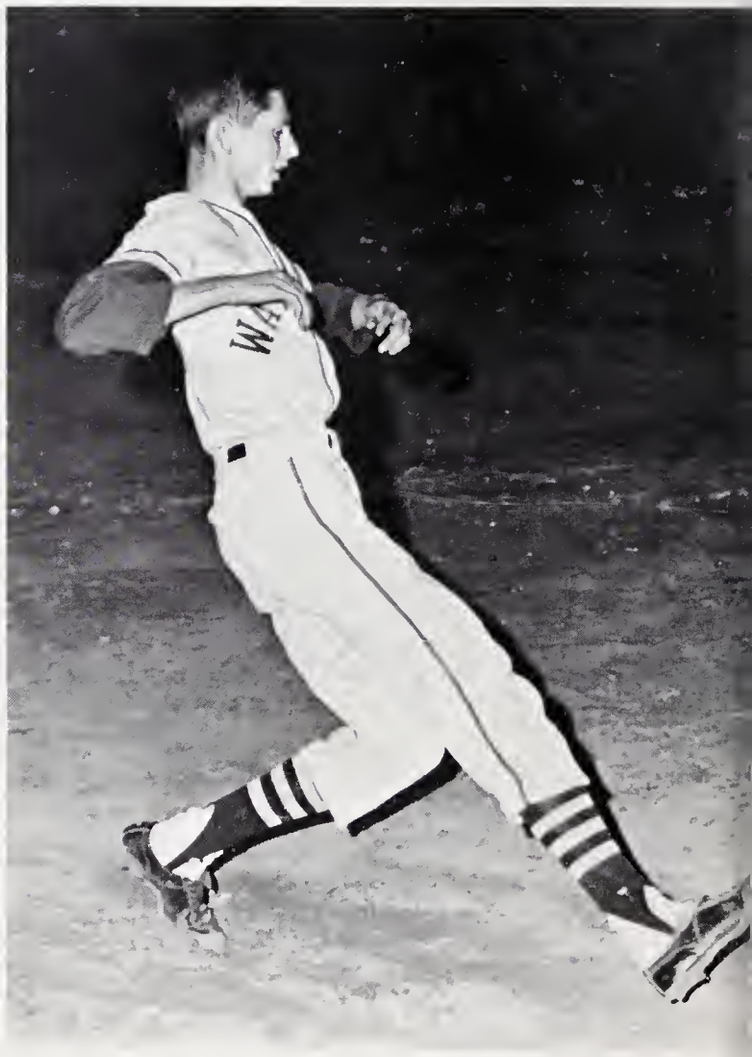
Inspired by a great coach, the players developed a will to improve and the determination to win. These characteristics united the players into a team that had pride in the school and displayed it in every game in which they played. This year's team will strive in every way possible to better the mark of Division Champions and Runner-up in the Conference while carrying out the Yellow Jacket tradition of fine sportsmanship.

Coach Wayne Plaster



Pitcher, Wayne Lyles

Marty Allen's speed helped him to make it to third base safely.



Leslie Wells's long stride has carried him to third base many times.

Baseball has its ups, downs, and sometimes sideways. But for last year's team it usually meant victory.

Standing: Coach Jon Burwell, Randy Currin, Phil Daniel, Billy Spruill. Kneeling: Wesley Harris, Frankie Blaylock, Len Wilson, Benny Hilliard.

Coach Jon Burwell gives captain Phil Daniel a few pointers.

"Woo,

Best of luck always to the most vivacious, energetic cheerleader that John Graham has ever had, and a special congratulations to you for being elected head cheerleader. I know that you will do a great job. Have some fun for me next year here at John Graham. With your good looks and great personality you will go far I know. I will always cherish your friendship no matter where I go in the future and I hope that you will do the same. You will enjoy college so much when you get there I am sure. Stay sweet and keep up the ole "39-21-40" shape.

Love always,
Captain Phil

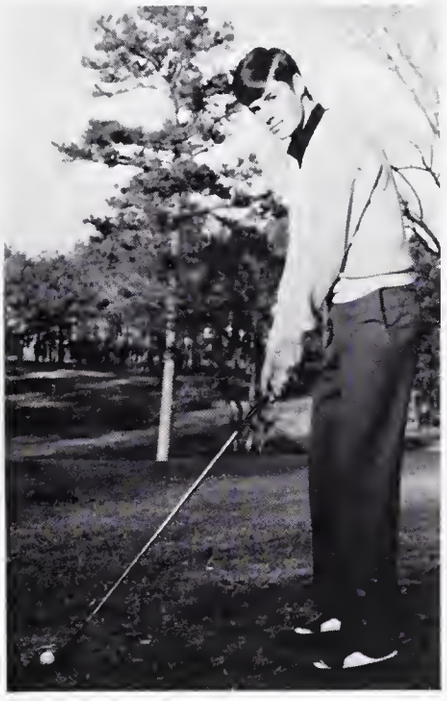
Randy Currin



Although golf is a relatively new member of the JG athletic family, the teams have, in their first two seasons, established high standards of performance in competition. The golf team is one in which John Graham can and should show pride.

Warrentonian Staff

With our school days coming to their close, we pause to look back upon the friends and the happiness we have had. Our last year has been one filled with many experiences which we shall never forget. The joys, the sorrows, the fun, and the hard work– these are all parts of our memories. In the 1968 Warrentonian, we have tried to preserve for you through pictures these wonderful memories of John Graham High School.

The 1968 Warrentonian Staff

Miss McLean and Mrs. Shields

No words can express the gratitude we feel toward these two people. Their advice and criticism have guided the Staff through any and all difficulties we have encountered. They have placed themselves at the disposal of the Staff, and have cooperated with our whims and fancies. We indeed owe them a very great deal, and we hope they will realize what we are trying to express when we give them a sincere but simple "Thank you!"

Nothing serves to create a sense of unity better than the experience of working together. Although we had our differences in opinion, the '68 Warrentonian Staff has worked as an organized unit in bringing you what we consider a well-rounded representation of the things we know and love at John Graham. We would like to express our sincerest thanks to ten of the finest workers anyone could wish to be associated with.

Valerie and Paul

How lonely we shall be!
What shall we do,
You without me,
I without you?

Dear Nellie Sue,

Our really sorry we're leaving so soon & have always loved & enjoyed your classes. We'll miss you very much & hope you have a wonderful year in 5th grade. Remember to study hard & behave yourself. Don't forget to write us & tell us how you're doing. Maybe we'll come back to visit sometime. Good luck in the future.

Love,
Mr. & Mrs. Cooper

Nellie Sue,
We've enjoyed being in class with you these past years. Best of luck always to a girl with a great personality!
Love ya!
